Society.

With so many of the leading lights sojourri - at the seashore, in the moun on the takes, society is a decided); dull community in Wheeling thi- week. Speaking of the migration to the summer resorts, it is said so many Wheeling people were never be fore away from the city. The railroad men estimate that no less than 1,000 Wheelingites are now sojourning at out-of-town points. The Wheeling man (including of course the Wheeling wo-man) is everywhere. Bar Harbor, Lake George, Chautauqua, Mackinac Put-in-Bay, Atlantic City, Mount Clemens, Cambridgeboro Springs - every where, in fact, the Wheelingite is to be

About one hundred men are now at work for the Buckhannon Cement Co., at Manheim, near here, tearing down the face of the mountain and getting ready to erect their mill. Manheim is quite a promising little village.

There was a terrific rain down in ing and the Bellaire, Zanesville & Cining and the Bellatre, Zanesville & Cincinnati rallroad was crippled so for about six miles that no trains were run over that portion of the road. The morning train got as far as Lowisville and returned to Bellatre in the evening. The other end of the line is running, but the road was cut in two and it is not thought possible to have trains going through to-day, though they have a large force at work repairing the washouts.
